

CLAIMS

1. A flowerpot having an automatic water feed function, comprising an outer pot and an inner pot provided 5 with a water intake hole at the lower portion thereof, wherein the inner pot is detachably fixed in the outer pot and a gap between the inner peripheral surface of the outer pot and the outer peripheral surface of the inner pot constitutes a sealed space that is isolated from the outside 10 air, excepting said water intake hole.